FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Valin Corporation Named one of Modern Distribution Management's Top 40 Industrial Distributors in 2016

San Jose, Calif. (July 2016)— Valin Corporation, a leading technical solutions provider in San Jose Calif., was recently named to Modern Distribution Management's 2016 Top Industrial Distributors list. This list identifies the top 40 distributors by revenue in industrial distribution. Modern Distribution Management is the leading information source for independent distribution channels.

"We're very excited to once again be named to this prestigious list," said Joe Nettemeyer, President and CEO Valin Corporation. "Our goal is to continually be seen as a market leader in the industrial distribution industry. The programs and practices we've put into place focus on delivering both innovation and education to our suppliers and customers."

The list was released in conjunction with the 2016 Distribution Trends Report, which is available to MDM premium subscribers. The trends report provides an in-depth look at the key trends, opportunities and challenges facing wholesaler-distributors across distribution sectors.

Data was collected from companies, public filings and news releases. For private companies who did not provide their revenue data, the MDM editorial staff estimated rankings based on past reported revenues, average revenue declines within the sectors, data from economic reports and conversations with industry experts.
