Valin Corporation Named one of Source Today's Top 50 Industrial Distributors
Acquisitions and partnerships bolster organization's portfolio

San Jose, Calif. (Nov. 8, 2022)— Valin Corporation, a privately held, employee-owned company providing technical solutions for the technology, energy, life sciences, natural resources, and transportation industries was recently named to Source Today's 2022 Top 50 Industrial Distributors list. This list is determined by each company's success in 2021 among other industrial distributors.

"It's an honor to be named among the very best industrial distributors in operation today.," said Dave Hefler, President of Valin Corporation. "Our goal is to continually be seen as a market leader in the industrial distribution industry. We continue to invest in businesses and technologies that we believe in and are proud to continue to supply our customers with the very best solutions across many industries."

Valin enhanced its product portfolio during this time as it announced in 2021 it had acquired Sun Automation for its automation products and was now partnering with Eaton to offer strainer solutions to its customer base.

Source Today's Top 50 Industrial Distributor ranking highlights the 2021 performance of the world's largest distributors.
